

The Sun is Not for Us

“Sophisticated, passionate and dangerous...”

Love, hatred, hope, frustration, struggle, adultery and incest are explored in a brand new work inspired by legendary Chinese playwright Cao Yu's four most famous plays.

stage@leedstouring

Previews: 3, 4 Aug
Performances: 6, 7, 10, 11 Aug
4.10pm

THE SPACE  on North Bridge (v36)
www.thespaceuk.com

Denied the sun – enduring a life bereft of hope.

Imprisoned in an eighteen-year arranged marriage, what happens when a Chinese woman falls in love with her stepson? Why does a girl leave university to become a courtesan? How can you reconcile primitive passions, sexual deprivation and a defiant courage for life? After losing love and dignity is death the only escape? Inspired by legendary Chinese playwright Cao Yu, these themes are explored in a dynamic production bringing together the characters and stories of China's four most famous modern theatre works in one hour.

Previews

Fri 3 & Sat 4 Aug
4.10pm (1hr)
£5.00

Performances

Mon 6, Tue 7, Fri 10, Sat 11 Aug
4.10pm (1hr)
£7.00 (£5.00)

Venue

theSpace on North Bridge (Theatre 2) (Venue 36)
North Bridge, Edinburgh, EH1 1TH

Fringe Box Office: 0131 226 0000 Venue Box Office: 0845 557 6308
boxoffice.northbridge@thespaceuk.com

'The Sun is Not for Us'
will also be performed as part of the International Contemporary Theatre Festival,
Shanghai, China Nov 6-8 2012

For more information about 'The Sun is Not for Us' or stage@leedstouring please visit www.stage.leeds.ac.uk

UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS